Nathanael Langley
College Park, MD • 850-529-6930 • nate.langley6@gmail.com

Education

TOWSON UNIVERSITY, TOWSON, MD
Coursework toward B.A. in Fine Arts — Aug. 2023 - May 2025
- Honors College Student

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, COLLEGE PARK, MD
Master of Education (MCERT) via IMCP — M. Ed. Expected Spring 2028
Bachelor of Arts in Studio Art — B.A. Expected May 2027
- Selected for the Integrated Master's Certification Program (IMCP), an accelerated 4+1 pathway for teacher certification.

Experience

ART TEACHER
Abrakadoodle of Anne Arundel and Howard County — June 2025 - Aug. 2026
- Facilitated process-based art lessons for diverse student groups to foster creative confidence
- Managed classroom environments of up to 30 students, while guiding children in using various media, including acrylics, watercolors, and sculpture
- Differentiated instruction to meet students' developmental needs and encourage individual expression
- Communicated effectively with parents and site directors regarding student progress and program highlights, maintaining the high professional standards of the Abrakadoodle franchise

CHILDCARE AIDE
Anne Arundel County Recreation and Parks — Oct. 2022 - June 2025
- Ensured the safety and supervision of up to 45 elementary-aged students, strictly adhering to county safety protocols and emergency procedures
- Attended to children's needs while helping to foster early development through leading crafts, gym activities, assistance with homework, and engaging in meaningful conversations
- Acted as a first point of contact for parents and guardians, managed check-in/check-out procedures, and communicated sensitive information professionally
- Maintained meticulous administrative records, including daily attendance logs, incident reports, and compliance paperwork
- Monitored facility conditions and equipment to identify potential hazards, and took immediate corrective action to maintain a secure space
- De-escalated peer conflicts and behavioral challenges through active listening and mediation

EVENTS STAFF
Towson University COFAC Events and Operations — Jan. 2025 - May 2025
- Managed front-of-house operations for university events, including performances, lectures, and receptions, ensuring adherence to venue schedules
- Provided high-level customer service to students, faculty, and the general public by serving as a point of contact for venue information, seating assistance, and accessibility needs
- Managed crowd control and guest entry for high-capacity events, maintaining safety standards and resolving seating or ticketing discrepancies with professional composure
- Facilitated technical and furniture setups, including the arrangement of AV equipment, stage seating, and signage, to meet specific event requirements and safety regulations

Extracurriculars

GRAPHICS DIRECTOR AND RADIO SHOW HOST
90.5 FM WMUC Radio — Sept. 2025 - Present
- Lead visual branding by designing original merchandise and promotional graphics
- Coordinate with Zine and Communications Teams to organize station events
- Contribute to the planning and publishing of a semesterly DIY magazine
- Host a weekly independent radio show playing industrial and electronic music

FREELANCE ILLUSTRATOR / DESIGNER — Aug. 2024 - Present
- Commissioned to create custom logos and digital illustrations for local clients and student organizations.
- Manage project timelines and client feedback using the Adobe Creative Suite.
    - Other notable skills: Microsoft Office, Apple Final Cut, photography, videography, and web design